LOCALS:
—Some needed improvements on our streets are being made.

—Mr. Robt. Hubbard has accepted a position with Mr. W. G. Rackley.

—Mr. John Williamson had the misfortune of spraining his ankle last week.

—Everybody was highly pleased with Col. Skinner and more so with his able speech.

—Mr. W. A. Dunn, Receiver, is detained at his home in Scotland Neck on account of sickness.

—Our Capt. Smith wishes to return thanks to Mr. Richard Byette, of Warsaw, for a jug of fine home-made syrup.

—Mr. B. F. Boykin, a member of the Board of Directors of State Hospital at Raleigh, had the honor of being elected a member of the Executive Committee for the next year.

—We must again remind all correspondents to sign their real name to what they write. They are never published, but they must be signed or else we cannot publish their articles.

—Mr. C. C. Sikes, Kerr's, N. C., writes that a party of boys went on a fishing expedition to Fennell's Cove, and caught about four dozen nice fish, and among them was a pair of fine Roe Rhad.

—We are glad to see that a neat new railing is being put up around the Cemetery. This improvement is very much needed and we hope if any are behind in their dues will pay it, and let Mr. Chesnut finish the work.

—Wanted, an intelligent compositor—one who can tell the difference from a white oak acorn and a scaly-bark hickory-nut. He must be first-class in every particular. In short, one who is willing and can get out the paper and catch all the mails on Thursday morning, no matter how serious the adversity are during the six working days. There's lots of big money in "the posish."

BEING LATE.
We have for the last two or three weeks been late in getting out the Caucasian.

We had no control over the accidents which have caused this. As every body can't set type or work about a press, when any of our help is sick we can not get any one to take their places, but have to wait. This has been our condition lately, but we are again about straight and we shall try and meet our readers regular hereafter.

Married.
At the residence of Mr. S. R. Daughtry, on March 9th, at 12 o'clock, M., Mr. John M. Weeks to Miss Della C. Daughtry, Rev. J. M. Ashby officiating. The following were the attendants, viz: Mr. Willie Weeks with Miss Temple Daughtry; Mr. James B. Daughtry with Miss Rosie McClamb; Mr. G. W. Sutton, Jr., with Miss Ophelia King, and Mr. Curtis Hobbs with Miss Celia Carr. Immediately after the ceremony the guests were invited to the dining room, where a splendid spread table was waiting. In the afternoon the party left Mr. Daughtry's for Mrs. Weeks's at which place an affair supper was given by the groom's mother. This was all that the guests could desire. We bade the happy couple good-bye on the 10th, with a wish that their pathway through life might be filled with good things.

Syrup of Figs.
Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

For Old Sores, Skin Eruptions, Pimples, Ulcers and Syphilis, use only P. P. P., and get well and enjoy the blessing only to be derived from the use of P. P. P. (Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassum.)

A Spring Medicine.
Nothing so efficacious as P. P. P. for a spring medicine at this season, and for toning up, invigorating, and as a strengthener and appetizer take P. P. P. It will throw off the Malaria, and put you in good condition. P. P. P. is the spring medicine in the world for the different ailments the system is liable to in the spring.

ALL THROUGH SAMSON.

MINGO.
The funeral of the late H. D. Tew, will be preached the second Sunday in April, at 11 o'clock, by Rev. Mr. Dawson, at the residence of Mrs. Kirby M. Tew.

Mr. Tew was a young man, about 28 years of age, and highly respected and loved by all. A dear one from us has gone.

Mr. John Strayhorn, one of our best and most successful farmers, commenced planting cotton last Tuesday.

Rev. Lundy Lee preached a good sermon last Sunday at Pleasant Hill School House.

Miss Ida E. Hawley, one of Miss G's prettiest young girls, is visiting her uncle, Mr. O. Jackson, in Dismal.

We are very sorry to learn of the extreme illness of Miss Ella G. Davis.

We hope her speedy recovery. She has the pneumonia, and is attended by Dr. O. L. Herring.

YOUR ATTENTION IS CALLED
In This Issue to What the Following Parties Have to Say to the Public.

Mr. E. M. Peterson calls your attention to the claims of an old reliable Insurance Company which he is representing in this country.

Mr. W. S. Merritt offers for sale a store and dwelling at Tomahawk.

Mrs. M. E. Peterson and Co., are back from the Northern market and ask you to examine their goods.

Mr. Hanstein goes North this week and will soon have a fine line of goods here.

Mr. T. M. Lee has a professional card. Law office over Stetson's, opposite Caucasian.

Faison Letter.
[Staff Correspondence.]

Business here is as brisk as could reasonably be expected. There will be a great deal of trucking in, and around here. The farmers, claim, as elsewhere, that they are at sea about what to plant for money.

The Alliance is in a healthy condition here. They are all in earnest for financial reform. They adhere to the Alliance principles because they believe they are right, and they do not want to support any other because they see no other relief for the depressed condition of the people.

Rev. Mr. McIntyre preached a very interesting sermon Sunday morning. His congregation hope to soon have the new church completed. There is no town in the State, according to size, which has a more beautiful and costly building. It is very handsome and reflects credit on the enterprise and liberality of the people. It is of the latest design and constructed both for convenience, comfort and appearance.

Social life has been very gay for the past several weeks. Miss Mildred McPherson, of Raleigh, our State representative at the Convention, has been visiting at the delightful home of Mr. F. Hill, has added much to the pleasure of all. Among the very handsome entertainments given in her honor since here, none were more enjoyed than the one given by Mrs. John M. Faison, last Friday evening.

Messrs. Jas. and L. H. Hines, of New York, who have been here for the past several weeks, will leave Wednesday. Mr. B. McCullen, of same place, who is visiting here, will remain in a few weeks.

Mr. J. W. Faison is visiting at Mr. E. J. Faison's, while Dr. Faison is attending a course of medical lectures. Their host of friends will regret to learn that they will make Charlotte their future home.

Misses Nyda and Jennie Hicks have returned from a visit to New Bern.

Miss Mary DeVane is visiting here.

Salem Items.
(Special Correspondent.)

Mr. Editor: Our items should have appeared last week, but from negligence, we failed to send them. Perhaps our delay in doing so will only make them more conspicuous.

The public debate of the Philotechnic Literary Society, held on Friday night, two weeks since was probably one of the best in the history of the Society.

The newly entered students in school are Messrs. C. H. Cromartie, Dawson's Landing; Charles H. Shipp, Clinton; Henry M. Register, Clinton, and Misses Minnie Lawton, Chocoma; Floy White and Bettie Underwood, of Roseboro.

The school is in a most prosperous state of affairs and is a success in every particular. Four fifths of the number enrolled are boarding pupils and Mr. Butler is still securing others each week.

The people of our section were very much interested in the actions of the St. Louis Convention, and your paper was much in demand last week. We were sorry that it was unavoidably delayed.

The people of the North Carolina delegation at the Convention. Our people are not opposed to a new party, simply because it is a new party. The reform sentiment, they only wish to see a measure is better than utter defeat.

Popular opinion is not prepared for a new party, and popular opinion must be courted. Names are to-day non-significant, as is clearly illustrated by the Republican party, and to secure to the people that still strong element who are Democrats, not only because it was their first love, but from prejudice, and the people of the North Carolina delegation at the Convention. Our people are not opposed to a new party, simply because it is a new party. The reform sentiment, they only wish to see a measure is better than utter defeat.

THE POISONOUS ACIDS.

In the blood, should be taken up and removed by the Liver and Kidneys, but these organs get out of order—fail to do their work and the Result is Rheumatism. There are a thousand remedies for the Liver and Kidneys, but there is only one cure for Rheumatism, and that is Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy. A large bottle may be had at the drug-gist, or will be sent by express to any address on receipt of $5. That is the price of a cure, and any one who is having an argument with the Rheumatism will feel fully repaid by the first dose of Drummond's Lightning Remedy, 48-50 Maiden Lane, New York.

ON OUR TABLE.

Who Lives! An Interrogation. By Prof. Emil Biam and Sigmund Alexander, is one of the boldest, most radical and realistic works of the decade. It is an unconventional work as it is unique. In religion and ethics it is radical. In politics, strongly socialistic. In literature it is extremely realistic. In general, bold, faithful. It is suggested to the authors by Dr. Max Nordau's "Degeneration" and the great author has written an introduction strongly commending the work. This book is issued by the Arena Publishing Company, Boston, Mass. Price 50 cents.
